

2027 Linda Wallace Exhibit & Events

In the Fall of 2027, the Cowichan Valley Public Art Gallery will be showing a “Retrospective of the Tapestries and Art of Linda Wallace”. Linda Wallace was born in Victoria and lived on Vancouver Island. Linda’s work was concept driven reflecting her vision and deeply felt concerns expressed through powerful images, luscious colours and careful execution. She had a remarkable career of international stature. Her work has been extensively shown internationally, widely photographed and published.

The Retrospective will run from October 1, 2027 to January 15, 2028 at the Cowichan Valley Public Art Gallery 126 Ingram Street, Duncan,BC.
